Operation MakeSafe

Operation Make Safe is an initiative intended to raise awareness of Child Sex Exploitation(CSE). Although aimed at enabling businesses predominantly in the service industry to identify situations where CSE may be about to or is taking place, the Make Safe briefing is very interesting containing information which I think would be useful to practitioners from many disciplines across the City.

This year, Child Safety Week takes place from Monday 5th to Sunday 11th June 2017, with the theme Safe children:

Sharing is Caring

CAPT are asking friends, families, communities and professionals to show they care by playing their part in keeping children safe and sharing their experience and knowledge – not just about the horrors of accidents, but also the really practical, simple things they do to prevent them.

NSPCC and O₂ Share Aware Campaign

I Saw Your Willy

It can be hard to keep track of what a child is doing on social networks, apps and games. Or know how to keep them safe. That's why the NSPCC teamed up with O2. Together they're helping parents untangle the web. And teach their children to beShare Aware.

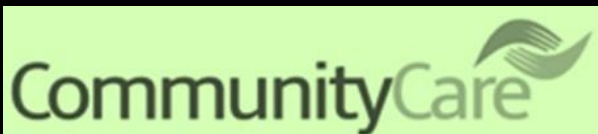

Because, just like in real life, kids need your help to stay safe online.
